

GEORGE STREET CHAPEL

A truly inspiring experience

SCHOOL EDUCATION VISITS

An interactive and exciting look into

Oldham's history

2014/15

GEORGE STREET CHAPEL

Welcome to George Street Chapel! Oldham's Grade II* listed former Independent Methodist Chapel; a stunning and unique building full of history and tales of the past - hidden in the hustle and bustle of Oldham's town centre!

In 2004 Age UK Oldham rescued the neglected building intending to open it for community use in the town centre, soon became fascinated by its history and realised its potential.

Generous funding from Heritage Lottery Fund, the Andrew Lloyd Webber Fund and Viridor has enabled Age UK Oldham to restore the building with its magnificent organ to its former glory, creating a local heritage centre which incorporates former cellar dwellings in the basement. Volunteer actors portraying local characters whose everyday lives have been carefully researched bring a lively aspect to the Heritage tours and school educational visits.

EDUCATION PACK

Our Schools Programme has been developed to provide children with an exciting way of engaging their young minds with history and encouraging them to use their imaginations and powers of creative thinking.

George Street Chapel welcomes groups of all ages. The site is a fantastic resource for schools to explore. We offer a range of unique opportunities that bring learning to life in a very special setting. Children from KS1 and KS2 gain a real understanding of what life was like in the Victorian period. The fun and interactive learning experiences and activity workshops will ensure children remain attentive and interested.

Our education team will engage and inspire your class with the story of George Street Chapel and the cellar dwellings. Through role play and interpretation, 'time travelling' enables children to travel back to the Victorian era, meeting real characters and learning about many aspects of Victorian life.

A series of activity workshops, worksheets and materials will provide your class with a hands-on experiential learning experience with clear and detailed links to the National Curriculum.

During your time at George Street Chapel, history will come alive as the children dress in costume and meet characters who lived, visited or worshipped at the former cellar dwellings and the Chapel during Victorian times.

Your class will experience hands-on activities which will illustrate the similarities and differences between the mid nineteenth century and today and learn about local history in a unique learning environment full of memories from the last two hundred years.

We are happy to work with you to devise a programme that will fit with your learning objectives. You can sample our standard visit packages or work with us to put together a personally tailored experience for your class.

Teachers can organise a free teacher visit in order to carry out a planning visit or risk assessment. This can be obtained by contacting our Education Manager.

INTERACTIVE LEARNING EXPERIENCES (Included in Option A)

WASH DAY

The traditional day for the washing to be done was a Monday. Very few wives then went out to work, and to wash on Sundays and hang it on the line was thought rather disgraceful as the former dwellings are situated underneath the Chapel, this was strictly forbidden.

Martha Titter will be busily attending to her family's washing as you arrive. As the former dwellings did not have the luxury of modern life, Martha attends to her washing outside with a dolly tub, posser and mangle.

Your class will be greeted by Martha dressed in Victorian costume. Martha will demonstrate how she deals with this huge weekly task of washing for her family of six. Pupils will be asked to help Martha as she washes in her dolly tub and hangs clothes with dolly pegs on her washing line.

LIFE BELOW GEORGE STREET

Mary Hall's cellar dwelling is cramped, has no plumbing and is damp and draughty. This Back of George street experience gives a shocking insight into the lives of the poor Victorian working class.

Mary will show you around her modest home and explain to you how her family live, eat, sleep and play.

Mary has a large family and spends her day cleaning the house, cooking meals for her husband and children, making and mending clothes for everyone as well as helping sweep and dust the chapel daily.

Mary enjoys having some company as well as some help. Your class will be asked to help her with some of the tasks from sweeping to washing the family crockery in time for dinner.

CHAPEL SCHOOL ROOM

Your class will say goodbye to Mary Hall and her home - it's time for school....

Our school experience brings the 1850 classroom to life. It was rarely enjoyable, school was disciplined and regimented - sometimes even brutal.

Miss Hopwood will ring the bell 'It's time for school!'

When the bell rings, the children will line up in silence in height order – boys first, have their hands inspected and washed in cold water with carbolic soap

They will recite morning prayers, have a lesson in writing using slates and slate pencils and practise arithmetic and times tables.

CHAPEL EXPERIENCE

Towards the end of your day with us all children will join together for a service in the chapel led by our 1850's visiting minister.

Children will assist in making sure the chapel is ready for service and help with sweeping and dusting as they remember the motto from the chapel school 'Cleanliness if next to Godliness'

Loud strong singing voices are needed to impress our visitor and you will be joined by some of the characters you have met throughout your day.

'GOING UP TOWN' HISTORICAL TRAIL (Included in Option B)

Oldham's "Going Up Town" Historical Trail has plenty of adventure for young minds; tales of merciless ducking, a great fire, hidden faces and the Oldham Giant! With worksheets and maps this trail is a fun way to understand Oldham's history. This trail takes you from George Street up through the Town Centre, exploring Oldham Parish Church crypt and finishes back at the chapel.

There is lots to see and learn along the way, plus we've included some activities for the journey.

CHAPEL WORKSHOP ACTIVITIES

Choose four from a carousel of ten visual, auditory and kinaesthetic workshop activities.

These will encourage independent learning through first hand experiences central to the curriculum. Your class will divide into smaller groups of up to 8 and spend 25 minutes in each activity area. All activities are supported with an Education Team interactor in costume, who will work alongside the group throughout.

Activity One: HISTORICAL DETECTIVE

A bag has been found on the steps of the chapel ...who does it belong to?? Together in a group, children will build up a picture of the owner using the evidence they find inside.

Could your group be our next Chapel Detective and help solve the mystery of the bag?

Worksheets support this activity

Activity Two: WICKED WINDOWS

Coloured glass panels in our chapel windows make impressive reflections.

Children create their own stained glass window with the use of art materials.

The window template has the same outside structure but also a space in the middle for the children to add their own central picture.

Activity Three: COPY CAT

Children can take an outline rubbing of both Martha & Joseph Titter from our etched blackboards or colour in the figures directly with chalk.

Children may also draw their own figures copying from scratch.

A range of chalks, pencils and crayons is available for this activity

Activity Four: I-SPY FLIPBOOK

A fun group activity where children play i-spy and look around the chapel identifying photographs of chapel items with questions to answer.

I-Spy develops speaking and listening skills in a group context.

A worksheet supports this activity

Activity Five: TEAM JIGSAW

Two groups of children work together on this wonderful chapel jigsaw which includes a historical timeline including monarchs from 1815 and important events in the chapel and Oldham's history.

Chalk rubbings can be made once the jigsaw is complete – this activity involves two groups working simultaneously

Activity Six: EASY EASELS

Using an easel like the artists of yesteryear, join the dots to draw the magnificent chapel organ. Bring the organ to life using a range of chalks, pencils and crayons.

Blank paper is available for older children who wish to draw the organ free hand

Activity Seven: PEG PEOPLE

A creative and simple craft project for children.

Following clear instructions from the costumed guide children make their own unique chapel peg person.

A great fun activity and a memory to take home

Activity Eight: PEN AND INK

This great little art activity for children demonstrates the basics of calligraphic lettering using a nib pen and ink

Handwriting samplers to complete and a sand tray to practice letter style and flow

Activity Nine: CHAPEL HUNTER

Themed fun activity trail around the Chapel searching for clues – a great activity to keep them moving and searching.

A worksheet completed on the trail keeps them thinking individually and working as a team to solve the clues and find the hidden treasure. This includes activity on the top floor balcony and needs close supervision – see risk assessment

Activity Ten: STORY TELLER

Story telling is a powerful way to engage children and encourages them to listen to a parable and follow on with a group discussion

Led by a costumed interactor this lovely activity will bring our story to life.
